

WELCOME TO paradise

Prominently positioned in the hub of the newly modernised Surfers Paradise foreshore and Cavill Mall, the Hotel Grand Chancellor Surfers Paradise is ideally placed for an extraordinary beach holiday. The hotel has recently undergone a multi-million dollar renovation, rejuvenating many of its guest rooms and public areas.

CB Constructions, an award-winning Gold Coast-based construction group, carried out the renovation, working closely with Grand Chancellor management to ensure the results were modern, stylish, and perfectly suited to the discerning visitor. CB Constructions has an inspiring dedication to both ecological and charitable causes, a dedication shared by the Hotel Grand Chancellor Group. The newly renovated rooms brandish a 4.5 star rating, marking the end of a year-long period of renovation for the hotel. This rating is a testament to the wonderful changes achieved during this time. Thanks to the renovation, the deluxe and premium rooms are now a tasteful, elegant, and relaxing option.

The deluxe rooms feature a modern look, gleaming surfaces and hints of colour, yet still retain a very competitive price point. The deluxe rooms are available in twin, twin or king ocean view, family, and spa configurations.

When all-out luxury is the aim, the premium spa rooms deliver. The rooms feature 35sqm of floor space, Whirlpool spa, a private balcony and floor-to-ceiling windows to maximise the breathtaking ocean views. The renovation involved a complete bathroom redesign in the premium rooms, including the removal of a wall to create more space. Premium family rooms are also available.

The business traveller will especially love the newest room type created by the renovations, the premium suites. These rooms feature a lounge area that is the perfect setting for an informal business meeting. The hotel's friendly events team is also available to arrange larger meetings in any of the hotel's six well-appointed conference rooms.

In addition to the renovated rooms, the Grand Chancellor's existing rooms provide pleasant accommodation. Standard rooms offer a great view of the Gold Coast skyline or hinterland from a spacious 30sqm room, featuring a private balcony and either a king-sized bed or twin bed configuration.

The 43sqm family rooms have plenty of space for mum, dad, and the kids. These rooms come with either ocean or hinterland views, a private balcony and can sleep up to four adults.

Hotel Grand Chancellor Surfers Paradise general manager Peter

Yared said the renovations have helped the rooms meet the high standards expected by the hotel's guests.

"Rainfall showers and Bluetooth speakers are only a few of the finer details that we now offer in our premium rooms, giving our guests the luxury they are after," Mr Yared said.

Other areas of the hotel that have undergone an impressive change include the lobby, which features the addition of the brand new Hanlan's Bar, the pool area, and gymnasium, with lift interiors also receiving an upgrade. These exciting changes, in for families, couples, businesspeople and leisure travellers, and an ideal setting for corporate and social functions.

The Grand Chancellor's location makes it a fantastic base for vacation activities. The soft sand and blue water of Surfers Paradise Beach is just a three-minute walk from the hotel, with a patrolled beach for added aquatic safety. There is plenty nearby to keep families entertained, with a Timezone arcade in the shopping complex below the hotel, Strike bowling across the street, and Ripley's Believe it or not in the Mall. The hotel has a friendly tour desk operator located in the lobby who can assist in booking tours, and trips to the many Gold Coast theme parks.

Surfers Paradise is full of exhilarating activities both day and night. There is a multitude of new shopping choices in the recently completed retail spaces along Cavill Mall and Surfers Paradise Boulevard. In the evening there is an invigorating nightlife scene to explore, and all within walking distance of the hotel.

The upgrades provided by the renovation make the Hotel Grand Chancellor Surfers Paradise a brilliant combination of hospitality, luxurious facilities and prime position.

"Great service, and a wonderful location are now really complemented by the hotel's new look," Mr Yared said. Q addition to the hotel's full-sized floodlit tennis court, provide hotel guests with an excellent choice of places to dine, relax, or work up a sweat.

The hotel's restaurant, formerly Rez252, is currently undergoing its final stage of renovation. Upon completion, the restaurant will be re-launched under a new name: Hanlan's Restaurant, and will combine with the new lobby bar to form Hanlan's Bar & Restaurant. Between the two, all dining needs are covered in a fabulous and friendly setting.

Hanlan's Bar is the perfect place for an aromatic coffee matched to a decadent piece of cake, or a tasty and convenient lunch on the go.

For an elegant dinner, Hanlan's Restaurant is sure to impress. Their a la carte dinner menu is sourced from the best local and regional produce and is constantly changing as the chefs create exciting new seasonal dishes. A daily buffet breakfast is also available.

The pool area has undergone some significant changes, being fully resurfaced with glow-in-the-dark-edged tiles, receiving new pavers around the pool, a shaded seating area with new tables and chairs, the introduction of a poolside food and drink service, new daybed-style lounges and fresh, new landscaping.

Guests can enjoy the Queensland sunshine by relaxing next to the pool with a book, taking a dip in the cool pool waters or de-stressing in the heated spa. The changes not only make the area more appealing to guests, but also open up a new avenue for the hotel's operations.

"The renovation of the hotel's pool area gives us the perfect option for hosting elegant outdoor events," Mr Yared said.

With 408 accommodation rooms, and function space for up to 600 people, the Hotel Grand Chancellor Surfers Paradise is the perfect holiday choice
